DETAILED ACTION

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: I) an air freshener with a planar fragrance member (claims 1-20) and II) an air freshener with a planar odor abating member (claims 21-30).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37

Art Unit: 1772

CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

2. During a telephone conversation with Mr. Karl Hauber on 21 February 2005 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Species I, claims 1-20. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 21-30 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

3. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Spector (U.S. 4,720,409) in view of Spector (U.S. 824,707) further in view of Kassab (U.S. 6,258,200 B1).

Spector '409 teaches an appliqué with a transparent back layer (13) with adhesive (14) and release liner (15) and a design (16) printed on the back of a transparent front layer that also contains a fragrance that is released from the front layer. The appliqué can be used on an automobile window (col. 4, lines 55-60). Spector '707 teaches a similar structure except that fragrance is in a layer behind a porous layer so that the release can be controlled (col. 4, lines 10-20). Kassab teaches the use of a static cling film adhered to an appliqué for use on a windshield with printing such as parking information (abstract, Figure 6). The instant invention claims a static cling film adhered to a fragrance laminate with a fragrance layer behind a metering layer and a design such as parking information printed on the fragrance layer. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have adhered a cling film on the back of the Spector '409 laminate in order to have ease of attachment and removal to a windshield because of the teachings of Kassab. It further would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to replace the single fragrance layer of Spector '409 with a fragrance layer inside of and behind a metering layer in order to better control release of the fragrance because of the teachings of Spector '707. Use of any known absorbent layer to hold the fragrance would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art.
